

Reading BINGO for Grades 3 to 5

Watch a book trailer (e.g. Google search "Scholastic book trailers")	Read a book that is older than you are	Read to someone younger	Read a picture book	Re-read a favorite book from when you were little
Read in your pajamas	Record yourself reading	Read a book online (Tumblebooks)	Ask someone for a book suggestion	Read aloud in a funny voice - maybe read from a joke book
Close your eyes and pick a book from a shelf or pile...and read!	Read in a blanket fort	FREE SPACE 	Read a non-fiction book	Read about a sport or activity that you have never tried
Play "guess this book" - act out part of a book	Read a graphic novel that is new to you	Read a poetry or rhyming book	Read in the dark with a flashlight	Tell someone about a book you read
Take turns reading the same book aloud with someone	Read before breakfast	Read while you are waiting for someone...or something	Read to a toy or pet	Make an awesome bookmark as a surprise for someone

Name: _____ Teacher: _____

Address: _____

Book Choice: _____ Author: _____

How to play: Have fun completing as many reading bingos as you can. Return the bingo card via email to oaklands@sd61.bc.ca before Friday, January 22nd and your name will be entered in the lucky draw contest to win a book of your choice. There will also be a prize for the class that returns the most completed Reading Bingo pages. One entry per child.

HAPPY READING!